NOTES

1 The Conference Office is able to offer standard and en-suite university accommodation on the main Penglais Campus within a short walk of all Congress activities. Rooms are offered on a first come - first served basis with those rooms closest to the Conference venue being allocated first.

2 All campus accommodation is supplied with bed linen and towels. All rooms have a wash-hand-basin.
All accommodation has access to tea / coffee making facilities. Please note that there are no double or twin rooms.
Standard bedrooms have shared toilet and shower facilities. En-suite bedrooms have private shower, hand-basin and WC.

[3] Please note that there is no self-service meal option for Wednesday evening. Delegates not wishing to book the excursion to Devil's Bridge are free to make their own arrangements. Please see www.ceredigion.gov.uk for things to see and do in Aberystywth.

Catering

Delegates booking meals in advance will receive meal tickets upon registration, and will be given preferential access to dining rooms. A limited number of retail food outlets are also available on campus for those delegates in private or self-catering accommodation who wish to purchase lunches during the conference but availability cannot be guaranteed.

Accessibility

The campus is on a hill, and some facilities are connected by steep slopes - delegates with mobility difficulties should contact the Conference Office in advance to discuss their individual requirements.

Private Sector Accommodation

Hotel accommodation is available throughout the town (see www.ceredigion.gov.uk) and should be booked directly (not via the Conference Office). The campus is a 20 minute walk up the hill from the town, although taxi and bus services do operate between the two.
